

Angie Marie Good

April 13, 1977 - December 8, 2021

Angie Marie Good, age 44, went to be her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Wednesday, December 8, 2021. Her family gives glory to God for His Loving kindness during her twenty-month battle with ovarian cancer and the final six weeks of her life in hospice care at home. Angie lived a life full of smiles and laughter, kindness and generosity, and abundant love to all people because of her salvation in Jesus.

Angie was born on April 13, 1977 in Jeannette, Pennsylvania. She will be immeasurably missed by her faithful husband Stephen Good, treasured daughter Savannah Marie, and precious stepdaughter Shannon (Justin) Volcik. She is survived by her father Eugene Smorey, her mother Cindy (Bill) Gonsalas, an aunt Debbie Kramer, sister Kelly (Ken) Urick, sister Jackie Smorey, brother Eugene Smorey, In-laws Paul and Dawn Eichelberger, Douglas and Belinda Good, Sandra Good, and many loved nieces and nephews: Zachary, Austin, Kenly, Alexandria, Josey, Alisa, E.J., Brittany, Dakota, Zeb and Emilie and great nieces and nephew Leah, Esther, Mathias, Lydia, Malachi, Nathanael, Eli, Isaiah, Abby and Bekah, and Foreign Exchange Students Credy and Sun Mi. She was preceded in death by her nephew Alexander and her sister Becky.

Angie was a 1995 graduate of Kiski Area High School and earned Associates Degrees in Graphic Design & Multi Media from Westmoreland County Community College. She worked for Trib Total Media for 21 years. Angie was an incredible artist. She loved all kinds of hobbies including: journaling, scrapbooking, sketching, coloring, painting, crocheting, and delighted in giving gifts to those people closest to her as well as people she may have only just met. She was generous with everything God gave her: time, skills, gifts, and money. She loved children and was known as the “baby whisperer” in the church nursery. Her family enjoyed many years of fun cheering on the Pittsburgh Pirates. She was an avid Disney fan and found great pleasure in sharing exciting visits with her family. She is now enjoying everlasting life in heaven.
