“ Cathie's family... My mom (Kay) was one of her besties at Sonny's & for a large part of their lives. I was cleaning out a box of my moms and found had a hand painted switchplate by Cathy!! I had a dream about her last night and was curious today; this is what I found. My condolences to you all.
At least she had a bestie waiting for her. I lost my mom several years ago.
Heartbroken again!

“ I had not seen Cathy since we both were teenagers. Her mother, Mickey, was my first cousin. Cathy was 8 months younger than me. She called me about 5 months ago and she said she was happy to talk to me. I am retired and she called me every day for 4 months, her last call she said she was in the hospital for cancer and couldn't talk long because of her pain. I will miss her calls but I will see her again in Heaven.
