

Jane Mary DeShazo

October 14, 1962 - November 19, 2020

Jane Mary DeShazo passed away on November 19, 2020 after a brief illness, surrounded by her loving husband Doug and daughter Rhiannon.

Jane was born October 14, 1962 in Torpoint, Cornwall, England. She moved with her family to New Orleans, Puerto Rico, and Cape Cod during her young life. She met her husband Doug in Atlanta through a mutual friend and they were never apart again, being married for almost 35 years. Jane had one daughter, Rhiannon Blue DeShazo in 1987.

During her career, Jane worked as a server in many fine dining establishments. Later in life Jane was homemaker, taking care of her beloved daughter Rhiannon. She enjoyed life to the fullest and loved to laugh and entertain friends.

Jane was a very kind soul who saw the good in everyone and she never met a stranger. She often took in stray animals until they were found a good home, as well as people who needed a hand up. Jane was a prolific poet, a musician, an artist and an overall wonderful person.

Jane is survived by her husband Doug, daughter Rhiannon, mother Shirley Armer (Bob), Brothers John Stanley (Wendy), Paul Stanley (Stacey), Robert Armer (Alecia), Father-in-law Mike DeShazo, Sister-in-law Rebecca DeShazo and many nephews and nieces.

The family will be holding a Celebration of Life in the near future-details TBD. In lieu of flowers, donations in her name can be made to The Wounded Warrior Project.

“ Remembering with love my beautiful vibrant cousin Jane . Her wonderfully kind caring welcoming nature will never be forgotten. Her gorgeous smile and incredible sense of fun was just infectious.
Rest in peace lovely Jane. Heaven has gained another Angel.
We love you very much.

“ We are absolutely heartbroken that Jane was taken from this world at such a young age. Anyone who knew her could tell you what a kind and caring person she was, she always stuck with me through the ups and downs of my younger years, and later on she became very close to Wendy, calling her “soul sister”. Even though separated by thousands of miles, we stayed close and spoke on the phone frequently. I last spoke to her on October 14th, her birthday, and as usual she was upbeat and we had some laughs. The light of the world is dimmer with her passing and we miss her terribly, but there are many happy memories that I find comfort in. Till we meet again sister, say hi to Nana Grandad and Uncle John.....

“ Jane was such a lovely soul and my close friend being married to my best friend in this world! My vision of Jane is seated in the hot tub with bubbles steadily rising above her head! You see in Jane's determination to make her guests as comfortable as possible, she poured bubble bath into the hot tub thinking they were bath salts!! Bubbles rose 10 feet high over the whole pool! I nicknamed her that day Bubbles LaRue! I will always love Janey Bubbles" and remember that memory and many more for the rest of my days! Blanche, your turn!

“ We are heartbroken with the passing of our beautiful daughter. Jane Mary will always remain in a place in our hearts. She has left us with many wonderful memories.

She was beautiful inside and out and had a generous, giving heart. When she was just four years old, Mom would give the boys (John and Paul) and her, each six Dollie Mixtures. Boys, being boys gobbled theirs up, post haste. Jane, then, always, the generous one, offered some of hers.

Some of her happiest times were when we were together, when we lived in Florida. Jane loved to visit us. We would all go out for a meal. The conversation flowed and there was much laughter, mostly about silly things. But those were the times that we cherished with Jane. At night we would all watch funny videos. And she always wanted to watch a James Bond movie (most of the time it was "Live and Let Die"), she loved Roger Moore, almost as much as Antonio Banderas. We went to many concerts at the King Center. She was truly blown away by The Australian Pink Floyd Show. The look on her face was priceless when the band began to play. That was a truly precious moment that we will never forget.

After we moved to Oregon, she would call once a week and the conversations would last hours. I know she missed us terribly as we missed her.

Those are just a few memories that will stay in our hearts of our wonderful daughter.

We shall miss our chats, giggles and funny situations. She was blessed with the wit and sense of humor of her Mom and her Nana. We had so many good times. And through it all, there was love.

There will be a memorial mass said for Jane December 12 at 5:00 PM at The Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Newport Oregon.

“ I cannot believe the news that your life has been cut so tragically short, Jane. I think of you often and will always remember your smile, laugh, and the times we shared in this life. Even though separated by the years, distance, and challenging family situation I've always felt a closeness that none of things could ever diminish. I love you, Jane. May God rest your beautiful soul.
