“ I met Joe many years ago when Angelique became a member of the Florida Twirling Studio ran by my daughter Melissa Conley. We had an outstanding parents association that did so much for the girls. Joe was the best. He was always fixing something, making things happen, and being there for us 100% no matter the need.

One of my favorite memories was when he built an eight foot high angel to grace our float for the Christmas parade. It was beautiful and had lights all the way around it. The parade was in St. Cloud. Joe and I towed it back from St. Cloud to Kissimmee as the brought the angel back. We laughed the whole way with all of the strange looks we got as this huge lit angel rose out of the night as we rose over the over pass on Neptune road. A good friend that was always there when needed.

“ My wife and I bought the house next to Joe in December of 2020 so we only knew Joe for a short time.
For the 11 months that we were neighbors I talked to Joe every other day and I know that he enjoyed life to the fullest.
I never saw him have a bad day, he was always cracking a joke, some good, some needed work..
He was a good neighbor, a great guy, and an even better friend.
Although our friendship was for only a short time,
I'm a better man having known him.
Joe, be at peace and rest in heaven my friend.

“ Joe and Anna welcomed us to the Western North Carolina mountains 13 years ago through their cabin rentals and we have cherished their friendship these many years since. We loved the area so much we moved to Franklin NC in 2017. Joe's authentic friendship and humor has blessed us more than words can say. His leaving us is a shock and the beauty of these mountains are dimmed with his passing. Farewell our dear friend, you will be sorely missed. Our prayers go out to your lovely bride.

“ He was my brother, different last name but same family. As a kid he was a master inventor and builder of all things sometimes safe and often crazy. As an adult he was a loving husband and dad and his kids, Anthony and Angelique, are a testimony of a dad who did well. Of course you will be missed but my memory has you planted in my heart and I'll only say, "See you later," for now.
