“ It was very nice to have met Linda. I got to know her when she visited her mom. She was a very lovely lady. My condolences to the family. Prayers of comfort. Brenda

“ Linda was the most selfless person I had ever known. She was extremely private and never wanted attention brought to herself. She did for anyone in need and never wanted or needed praise. She was ALWAYS there for us and we are forever in her debt for the care and nurturing she gave. Her strength and courage was shown over and over again with every health challenge she faced in the past few years. It seems so strange and unsettling not to have her in this world with us.
