

Natalie Renee Alicea

February 15, 2008 - August 6, 2021

Natalie Alicea suddenly passed away on August 6, 2021. Natalie was born February 15, 2008 in Dubois, Pennsylvania. She is survived by her parents Jose Alicea and Sarah Alicea (Chris Stein); siblings Emily and Matthew Alicea; grandmother Rebecca Brunswick; aunts and uncles, Jonathan Brunswick (Danielle James), Carmen Alicea and Magali Alicea, and several other family extended members. Natalie was preceded in death by her Abuelo, Angel M. Alicea; Abuela, Petra Rosado; Grandfather, Jeffrey Brunswick and uncle, Angel M. Alicea Jr. Natalie was a gifted student at St Cloud Middle School. She was so incredibly intelligent and attended the Jr. National Young Leaders Convention in Washington D.C. in 2019. Natalie was talented in everything she touched from singing, dancing and drawing and so much more. She loved making videos, watching Tik Tok, and YouTube. She loved anime, cosplay and was an expert in makeup. Natalie looked up to her older siblings. She annoyed her big brother Matthew but he loved her very much. She was the epitome of a Daddy's girl and was her grandmother's Diva Delilah but no one else was allowed to call her that. Natalie was an immensely caring and affectionate young lady who was always willing to give a hug to anyone for comfort. She was an amazing friend and loved by everyone that met her. She cared for people, animals and social justice. Natalie, you left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide, and although we can not see you, you will always be our side.

“ My Sweet littlest niece.
Beautiful soul. Gentle hearted. Kind and peace loving .
Titi Carmen will love you for eternity.
But most importantly
I will forever miss you.
You are my sunshine
My only sunshine
You make me happy when skies are gray.
You'll never know dear how much I love you.
Please don't take my sunshine away.
