

Randall Kevin Pflanz

May 13, 1961 - July 10, 2020

On this date, July 10, 2020, Randall Kevin Pflanz lost his battle with cancer at the age of 59. He was a wonderful son, brother, father, cousin, uncle and friend. He is survived by; his life partner, his love and best friend, Gwen Harry, two beautiful daughters, Breana and Brittney, his mother, Patricia (Newell) Pflanz, brothers, Mark, Dale and Brian Pflanz and his countless nieces, nephews and cousins. Randy grew up in the Northwest Suburbs of Chicago before moving to Orlando, Florida to start a family and a successful business. Anyone who knew him will agree that Randy had a very generous and loving heart that he always wore on his sleeve. He will be greatly missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

There will be a celebration of Randy's life in Florida followed by one in Illinois. Due to the safety restrictions caused by the current pandemic, the dates and details for both arrangements in Florida and Illinois are to be determined.

Sincerely, Gwen Harry and the Pflanz family.

“ Randy was a great guy. We met him thru Gwen. I've never seen Gwen happier then when her and Randy were together. I'm so glad we got to meet him and become friends with him. He was an amazing person with a huge heart. He'll always have a special place in my heart. RIP my friend.

“ Have known randy for many years; one night while having dinner at Giovannis with our daughter Randy came in and we started talking . Our daughter after sitting quietly for awhile said excuse me Are You DrPhil? We laughed and since that day we called him Dr Phil. Randy and I had one thing in common our love of gambling we always shared our win and loss stories and I will miss this RIP Randy
